

I have learned so far the brain can do lots of things it can even take control of us it can so do lot of other stuf if it was for safety like in a forest fire or for our fun at night like if we have a dream the brain is the most important part in our body.